1. Ted, I never intended it to be like this. I never intended two classes of people with one ruling over the other. I never put down those that were put down, that are put down. I reverence them all. I reverence them all. I reverence them all. My face shines upon all, and My covenant is with all. My sacraments are with all and for all.

2. My new covenant Ted, My better covenant is not all words, it's alive, it lives, I am. I said I would come and write My laws in their minds and hearts. Ted, I put them there. I put them there and I will put them there for all who let Me, all who want Me, all who enter into Me I enter into. I am My covenant. I am one with My covenant and I am one with My covenant people—who will let Me, who will let Me be Me in them, who let Me do with them what I want to do, say to them what I want to say—not cutting Me off from what I want to do and say, but open to Me and seeking Me and asking Me and worshipping Me.

3. I am one with My people and there is no covenant that separates us, no covenant that separates us that is of Me. My covenant does not separate. My covenant Ones, unifies, intertwines, and makes one.

4. I come and I write, I come and I write, Ted, for those who will let Me come—I come. For those who will let Me write—I write. Ted I come and I write on all who let Me come and write, and I come through all who will let Me come and write. I come and I write. I come and I write My laws on their mind and on their hearts. My laws. My laws Ted, My laws oh reader/hearer, My laws, My instructions, My precepts, My truths, My Me that makes Me who I am and do what I do. I share Me. I bring My bread and wine to all Ted, and they receive Me or reject Me. I am there and I leave not. I am available to all.

5. And Ted, all partakers of My bread and wine are to share My bread and wine with others. I never intended two classes of people. My body and My bread is for all. It's to all, for all, for Me, to Me, for them, for us, for all My body to partake and enjoy and impart to others.

6. Oh Ted, impart bread and wine to My body and help them impart bread and wine to My body so that all My body receives My bread and wine from all My body. One Ted, one.

7. Even I came as a man. I came into an earthly body to show My Me-ness and oneness and how I come to the lowly. One class Ted—My people. Not two—one. My people are one and everyone who believes in Me and tastes Me, serves another.

8. I, Ted, are one, and you Ted, as part of My body, are one with My body. My body must flow to My body. My body must flow as My body to My body and throughout My body, in freedom, not restriction, not in tiers of have and have-nots, do's and do-nots, are and are-nots.

9. Ted, I come and I write My Me on all who will let Me. I bring My bread and wine to all Ted, all, all who will—should you not do the same? Should not all you're freedomizing in Me not take freedom to all those around them? Should they not take bread and wine to all they can take bread and wine to? Do I require robed ones to sit at My table? To share Me? To share My bread and wine? Oh Ted, I come to the lowliest of the low. I came as nothing—a person of no estate—so no one could miss Me and My intent to boldly declare My oneness with the lowliest of the low, to those of great means—natural means.

10. I come Ted, I come today, this 10th day of July 2003, and declare and declarate and proclaim My allegiance, My love, My passion, My care, My concern, My love, My blood, My bread and wine—to the common man, the common woman - with no distinction, the common girl, the common boy—all Ted, all, all, all, all who will sit at table with Me for I will share Me with all, and all are to share Me with all.

11. The power is in the oneness Ted, not the separatedness. So plain, so simple, so true, so evident. Yet small thinking are many, many leaders who see control and segregation and separatedness as their means to their own personal power, forfeiting My means for them to My power.

12. I come and I come to all. I come and I come and I am coming in measure astounding all. None can miss Me except the unregenerate reprobates who choicefully and adamantly reject Me. Even though I wept for them, they rejected Me. I come and I come to all and the paradigms of the past are past and remaining yet still they diminish as My power increases and My writing increases on the minds and hearts of the willing, open to Me, obedient to Me.

13. Those Ted, will eat the good of the land, not the provocative, not the control-seekers, not the getters, but the givers, the lovers, the servants, the friends of the Most High, who reign in majesty and splendor—though now in closets and rooms little and dimly lit, on bended knee. They know Me and share My bread and wine. They anoint themselves with oil for Me, in My name, for believe they do, for speak they do, for writing Me on them they are, with every day, with every drop of oil, with every bended knee, with every prayer of heart.

14. In closets now—on platforms soon. For those who have let Me write My laws of love manifested on their mind and hearts, those Ted, will lead. Leaders who require adherence and obedience to man's rules—two classes—and heretical doctrines that supposedly delineate Me, those will diminish. For I come and I write and I'm writing Me on the minds and hearts of My people like never before.

15. I am opening their eyes, even now, even this day, this 24 hour day of yours, I am opening their eyes to Me and My power, My beauty, My splendor, My majesty, Ted, Me, and the freedom I bring and operate in—love resplendent in tangible visible splendor—in My lambs and all who let Me.

16. I am wise. Be wise.
I am wisdom. Walk with wisdom.
I am patient. Be patient.
I am large. Get bigger.
I am upon you. Recognize Me more.
I am confidence. Walk in My confidence.
I am impartable. Impart Me.
I am shareable. Share Me.
I am food—the bread of life. Serve Me to others, to serve Me to others, to serve Me to others.
Study Melchizedek. Study Me. Study My promises of My new covenant.
Open the eyes of the hearts and lives of My people to Me in them, and unlock Me.
Tell them to let Me be Me and walk forth the adventure I bring.

17. Was Abraham not adventurous?
Was Moses not adventurous?
Was Isaac and Jacob not adventurous?
Was Sarah, Rebekah, Deborah not adventurous?
Was Paul and Barnabas not adventurous?
Ted, all My prophets, all My people, all of Me—adventurous, unafraid, afraid but courageous, not intimidated.

18. Walk forth in this adventure in Me, and adventure will you to Mine, in My big world. Stifle not the words I give you that cross doctrines of decades, doctrines of centuries, doctrines of men. Write My words and let Me defend them. Tell them to challenge Me and if they will, on bended knee with open hearts, I will come and answer and share My bread and wine, with newness of heart and fervor and adventure and soar them with Me.

19. I died for all. I came to all. I come to all. Let them come to Me and I will speak and I will write and they will speak and they will write and all will share bread and wine with each other and two classes they shall not be.

20. This is Me and this is what I am doing. I continue to plainly convey, in simple terms, the new thing I am doing. And Ted, this is part of it. All of what I am doing is one. But for your understanding, I share as much as you let Me share—day by day, message by message, sentence by sentence, word by word I write to you, in you, and through you, to My people, to Me, for them, for Me.

21. Altar forth. Anointing oil forth. Technology forth. Power forth. Go Ted—all—in Me—in humility, deep humility, continuous humility, un-arroganceable humility, consistent-unimaginable humility, humility, Ted, meekness, meekness, meekness. Be bold, be radical and radicalize My timid, for many they are.

22. Passionate be—skip, sing, smile, laugh, serious be only when necessary. I keep telling you this for you keep lapsing back into seriousness and concern over things I've plainly demanded you overcome. Worry not. Move forward. Think small none—abundance, abundance, abundance. The more you share Me the more you'll have—enjoy and know Me.

23. Think not in dollars. Ted, think not in dollars, for dollars are limitless. Think in obedience. Think in stewardship. Think in Me. Peace be, peace still—peace give.

24. Now tell Dave I love him and I'm concerned about him—I'm concerned about his concerns. Now tell him I love him, and his concerns are in Me, His answers are in Me, His freedom is in Me. I have linked you two together for great joy. Lift and love and learn and give much, for he is of Me, My tribe, My nation, My people, My family, My lovers. Smile and laugh and freedom be to each other. Synergy in Me. Synergy in Me. Synergy of Me.

25. Tell My people again to pick up their pens and write—begin writing and begin now, today, tonight, this weekend. Ted, so have, some are. Keep after them and remind them constantly to write to Me, so they can write for Me, so I can write more in them. They will be glad and I will be glad and many fulfilling relationships will burgeon forth.

26. Much love—much responsibility—much focus—concerted focus—many people—helpers of helpers—limitless resources—many words—fantasies technologies—schools, campuses—satellites—inventions—creations—humility—bended knees—prostrate hours—transparency—purity—correctableness—disciplining—judgment—judgment.

27. Pray Ted. Bring the list of the kids of your friends. Bring the list of people who need Me and need others. Network My people in the networks I am birthing in you, through you, through giants of My words, through giants of My creativity, through giants of humility.

28. Surround yourself with humble giants. Move forward. Ask them Ted. Even giants are so reticent to initiate sometimes. Ask them and I will ask them, and choice they make. Advisory board, directors board, technology board, creativity board, curriculum board—councils Ted, councils, remember My councils?

29. Move forward and set the date of your conference—and I will give you what the conference is for, and what you will do, and what it will do. Trust Me.

30. I love you. Write more. Pray more. Love Me more. I love you.
